

Food recommendations!

Best bowl? Put together your own bowl at Esszimmer at Lustnauer Tor 4, e.g., with pasta or rice, meatballs or veggie balls, vegetables, sauces, and toppings. Mainly take-away, but there are also a few seats on the second floor. Best fries? The diner known for the best fries in Tübingen is the X in Kornhausstraße 6. It is a cult. Best salad? The Vegi in Kornhausstraße 1 is a wonderful place for exclusively vegetarian and mostly vegan dishes. Just as delicious as healthy! Best pizza? Zum Alten Fritz, Gartenstraße 13. You wouldn't expect to find the best pizza in Tübingen in a restaurant with this very German name, but the owners are Italians who know how to make a good wood stove pizza. Best bistro? The Collegium in Lange Gasse 8 is often crowded, for a reason. However, most of the dishes are also suitable for take-away. Weekly changing offer and some evergreens like Tarte or waffles. Best traditional Swabian food? If you want to know the local cuisine, try the Swabian food at Mauganeschtle next to Schloss Hohentübingen (Burgsteige 18). Not the cheapest option, but if you get a seat on the terrace, you can enjoy a great view over the roofs of Tübingen. Best modern Swabian food? Another good place for Maultaschen or Käsespätzle is the Bären in Schmiedtorstraße 3. They are known for their "Swabian Tapas", so you can taste 2-3 small portions of different Swabian dishes. Best burger? The Saints&Scholars in Wilhelmstrasse 44 has them! Vegetarian option available. Relatively large outdoor area. Best falafel? Get one of the popular Falafel sandwiches at Kichererbse in Metzgergasse 2 and enjoy it in the nearby park. Best coffee? The lovely Café Willi in Wilhelmstrasse 3/1 offers hot beverages, tasty cupcakes, and student-flair on top. If you want to, ask for vegan milk.
